BIG CONCERN FORCED INTO BANKRUPTCY

TALLAHASSEE SAWMILL CO., OP-ERATING MILLS AND RAILROADS IN FLORIDA AND GEORGIA, BANKRUPT—W. H. SMITH IS AP-POINTED CUSTODIAN.

The Tallahassee Sawmill Co., operating sawmills and railroads in Georgia and Florida, was forced into bankruptcy yesterday, when creditors, through Attorney T. L. Clark, of Monticello, filed an involuntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court here, in which it is recited that the firm is unable to meet its obligations and has so admitted in writing.

Those signing the petition were the C. W. Cooper Co., of Georgia; Jas. W.
 Dillon, of Thomasville; Jas. Watt & Bro., of Thomasville; John Trice, of Mose; and Henry Johnson, of Jefferson county, Fla.

Judge Sheppard, upon petition of the creditors, appointed W. H. Smith as custodian of the property, and fixed his bond at $25,000, to be approved by the United States deputy clerk at Tallahassee.

The company operates sawmills and railroads in Jefferson county, Fla., with main offices in Thomasville, Ga.
 The company is composed of New York parties who, two years ago, made purchases of mills, railroads and timber lands upwards of one million dollars.

movement, and from present prospects the organization will be formed with good membership and with every chance of success.

There will be a meeting held at room No. 618 Blount building at noon on Friday, December 3, for the purpose of effecting what will be known as the Escambia County Poultry Association, and it is urged that everyone interested in the raising of poultry attend. Great good can and will come from such an organization, and it is urged that all interested come together and help get the proposed association started. The big prizes won by poultry grown in Escambia county at the recent Tri-County fair was a good indication that there is not much trouble in raising the finest of feathered beauties right at home. The association will have many good points, and the success of the organization depends wholly upon the attendance.

CLASS FROM
EAST COAST

DUVAL WILL PROVIDE A CLASS FOR AGRICULTURAL INSTRU-CTION AT STATE UNIVERSITY, TO START VERY SOON.

Secretary Waterman, of the Chamber of Commerce, received a letter yesterday from C. C. Hanks, chairman of the Escambia Farmers' Club, at the University of Florida, stating that Prof. Vernola had just returned from Jacksonville, where he had appeared before the business men of that city for the purpose of explaining the agricultural department of the state institution. The result of the conference was that the city of Jacksonville will send ten boys to the university to take the agricultural course, following the example set by Pensacola. The Duval county class will start their studies on the day that the course of the Escambia county youths terminates.

Secretary Waterman, by way of comment on the letter received, said that while in Jacksonville lately, upon the occasion of the Waterways Convention, he had been asked about the movement in providing scholarships for the pupils in the agricultural course from here. He explained the move at full length, giving credit, of course, where it belonged. Jacksonville people began to get real interested and after the professor's explanation, coupled with some complimentary mention of Pensacola's business men's action, the east coast city provided the funds and will select the class.

SANTA ROSA PLANTATION CO.
IS NOT KNOWN

KANSAS MAN IN PENSACOLA
 LOOKING FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING A CHOCTAW
 HATCHER BAY SETTLEMENT
 PROPOSITION—GETS NO INFOR-MATION AND LEAVES TOMOR-ROW TO INVESTIGATE FURTHER

D. A. Armstrong, of 915 East Washington street, Pittsburg, Kansas, is in the city enroute to the Choctawhatchee Bay country, where he goes to investigate a land proposition which, he says, is being put out by the Santa Rosa Planta Co., of 411 Northwest Building, corner Lake street and Fifth avenue, Chicago.

Mr. Armstrong says the Chicago company claims to have 18,000 acres of land on the peninsula between Joe's Bayou and Indian Bayou and this land is divided up into ten-acre plots, which are being sold at $30 per acre—$25 down and the balance $10 a month until paid. He says they claim to have a town started by the name of Santa Rosa and that a settlement is already being formed there.

Several Kansas families whom the Chicago company has interested in this land have sent Mr. Armstrong down to investigate the proposition and he is now enroute to that point.
 He spent yesterday in Pensacola, trying to learn something about the Santa Rosa plantation company, but failed to get any information concerning it. He is a car carpenter in the Kansas City Southern shops. If he finds conditions as represented, he and quite a number of Kansas people will locate on Choctawhatchee Bay. He goes up on the mail boat tomorrow and will spend a few days looking over the country there.

No one in Pensacola, so far as The Journal could learn, seems to know anything about the Santa Rosa Plantation Co.

Doubtful Compliment.
 "And you say that your father said he would like to see me write the best poems of the day?" asked the bard in surprise. "Why, he didn't use to say that?"

"No," laughed the pretty girl, "but the other day he read that some of the best poems of the age were written in jail."

The pleasant purgative effect experimented by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create, makes one feel joyful.

Insult to Injury.
 "Deuced queer, these American girls," drawled the callow youth from London. "That one had the audacity to call me an idiot, and then, by Jove, she came up and pinned a bouquet on my coat. Wonder what she meant by that?"

"Haven't the slightest idea, Freddy," laughed the pretty hostess. "Unless she wanted you to be a blooming idiot."

Real Stylish.
 "Let me see," said the comedian, adjusting his glasses, "what is next on this a la carte dinner you have ordered?"

"Frankfurters, as I live," the heavy tragedian. "Hot ters."

"Ah, indeed! Then I suppose we shall have sort of a la dog cart, eh?"
